AMENDMENT TO MAURITIUS (IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS).

(Ordinance No.6 of 1949)

Paragraph (v) of the definition of 'Immigrant' occurring in Article 2 of the Mauritius Immigration (Control) Ordinance, 1939, is repealed and replaced by the following:-

- (v) a person, other than a British subject, who has resided in the Colony for a period not less than seven years and since the completion of such period of residence has not been absent continuously from the Colony for a period of three years or more.

2. Article 16 of the Mauritius Immigration (Control) Ordinance, 1939, is repealed and replaced by the following:-

16.(1) If any person arriving in the Colony ~~and that~~ as a passenger proves to the satisfaction of the Immigration Officer that-

- (a) he is a bonafide visitor to the Colony and that he intends to leave the Colony within a period not exceeding six months; or

- (b) he holds a ticket entitling him to return to the place whence he came to the Colony; or to proceed to some other place, within a period not exceeding twelve months after his arrival:

and such passenger shall not leave the Colony within a period of six months or of twelve months, as the case may be, he shall, before the expiration of the appropriate period, apply to the Immigration Officer for permission to remain in the Colony as an immigrant, which permission the Immigration Officer may grant, on such passenger complying with the provisions of this Ordinance and thereupon such passenger shall be deemed to be an immigrant within the meaning of this Ordinance.

(2) If any such passenger shall remain in the Colony for a longer period than six months or of twelve months, as the case may be, after his arrival without obtaining the permission aforesaid, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.
